

Measures: Answers

1. A small particle might go against this. grain
2. Associated with peach, kidney or Sharon. stone
3. Collect your car from here if it's towed away. pound
4. You might take these at a meeting. minutes
5. Melbourne, stirrup or egg? cup
6. A cheater may turn out to be a land measure. hectare
7. Would you go the extra? mile
8. God had only a little one according to Erskin Caldwell. acre
9. Old Greek currency without a small weight. drachm
10. A cloth measured out of the blue. bolt
11. A long time in Toy Story. lightyear
12. Pierre and Marie. curie
13. A length of recorded film. footage
14. A supporter in the corner of the ring. second
15. A spy in the camp or a strong pier. mole
16. The Met's former headquarters. Scotland Yard
17. A female ferret on the radio. gill
18. Sit by terminal to give a computing measure. byte
19. A really old man worth eight bottles? methusalah
20. Does a batsman get a Queen's telegram when he scores one? century
21. Goatmen may explode into this. megaton
22. The length of a cricket pitch. chain
23. Three nautical miles of gentlemen? league
24. A Scotsman hearing the speed of sound. mach
25. Ten of these make a large cowboy hat. gallons

26. Harsh interrogation is a third one.	degree
27. The distance between support columns of a bridge.	span
28. How many sheets of paper does a group of singers need?	quire
29. Naval hydrographer who measured wind.	Beaufort
30. The lowest theoretical temperature.	Absolute zero
31. A means of receiving TV and broadband.	cable
32. If horses have a lot of these they make light work.	hands
33. What you do to get 8 from 2.	cubit
34. A wading bird, a granny or speed at sea.	knot
35. Are you buried this depth at sea.	fathom
37. A measure of cloth in yellow.	ell
38. An amount that can be held between finger and thumb.	pinch
39. Distil a new tonic to find The Force.	newton
40. Two measures marking the distance from Rome.	milestone
41. A snow leopard.	ounce
42. Do not hide your light under 8 gallons.	bushel
43. What you might get on the cheek.	peck
44. Forty fluid ounces won't go into this pot.	pint
45. A potential difference found in a gym on the radio.	volt
46. A Scottish island that might be creeping along.	inch
47. An electric car.	tesla
48. What it took to pull an early plough.	horsepower
49. The compiler hasn't got any of these apothecary weights.	scruples
50. I am added to French president losing a small length.	micron

